

farmer. He and Nancy had the same phone number their entire lives, and their address always ended with "Sycamore, Illinois". Then, in 1992, he decided to enter public service and run for State Representative of the 70th district.

Mr. Speaker, I want to pay tribute to Dave today not only for his selfless public service to the people of Illinois, but to Dave as a friend. Before Dave ever ran for public office, he was simply a husband, father and grandfather. He raised his children with a sense of humor, a stern discipline, high moral standards, a deep and abiding faith in God and taught them leadership skills and simple common sense. Most-ly, he raised his children and provided his wife, Nancy, with love. Few knew at this point how much he would impact the lives of so many people or that so many would seek his counsel. His children never dreamed that the man they simply called "Dad" would become the man many would call "great."

Dave Wirsing was a friend to many. His small and large acts of kindness are unfathomable to some. However, to Dave, it was just the way he was meant to live his life. He was a humble man, never quite understanding why people outside of his family would honor him for achievements that to him were just what he was supposed to do. He was a man who dedicated his life—indeed, his heart and soul, to serving others—his family, his neighbors, his friends, his constituents.

Dave led by example—he lived by the Golden Rule, and yet he never expected anything in return for his kindness and compassion. He loved being around people—be it the company of his wife and family or in the presence of colleagues, acquaintances and even strangers. He was able to laugh at himself—a trait seldom seen these days. He dedicated his life to serving others. He helped his children grow, learn and prosper; he helped his neighbors in times of need; he helped his friends to resolve problems; he helped his colleagues see both sides of an issue and then beyond that to a resolution; he helped his constituents obtain the assistance and guidance they had a right to; he helped many young people grow in life through his wisdom, his gentle and jovial encouragement, his love and respect for each person as an individual, and his high regard for bettering oneself.

Mr. Speaker, Dave Wirsing's accomplishments were many, but most importantly, not a day went by that he did not share himself with someone. Solutions and advice came to him from principle and philosophy. He was not out to make a name for himself, he just wanted to make things right in his part of the world. If he did not have the skill necessary to help someone, he sought it out. He lived by the philosophy that if you always tell the truth, you won't have to remember what you said. Dave Wirsing did not live his life to achieve great moments, but instead had a lifelong commitment to a set of values and ideals. As I reflect today on the whole of his life, that is his greatest accomplishment. He leaves behind a legacy of faith, kindness, compassion and love for his family, friends and constituents. He will be deeply missed.

The Korean American Medical Association of District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia, Incorporated (KMA) is one of the most respected Korean-American nonprofit organizations in America. The association was founded in 1974 by a small group of respected Korean physicians. The KMA was the first Korean Medical Association in the United States. Its hard work and dedication has led the association to grow from a handful of members to a membership of about 400 physicians from the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia.

Since its inception, the association's involvement in the Great Washington, D.C. Metropolitan community has been commendable. The KMA provides health care services, seminars and educational opportunities to the community. The dedication that the members of the KMA have to its community is exceptional.

The KMA provides a forum for its members to exchange ideas and continue education helping its members continue to provide excellent service to the community. The care and services these physicians provide to their neighbors and friends is a testament of their hard work. The KMA certainly has distinguished itself as an outstanding group.

Mr. Speaker, in closing, with all the contributions to the community made by The Korean American Medical Association of District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia, Incorporated, we have a great reason to celebrate today. I want to commend the association 30 years of excellence and extend my warmest wishes for the years to come. I call upon my colleagues to join me in applauding the KMA on its 30th anniversary.

IN HONOR OF LOULA LOI-ALAFYOIANNIS

HON. CAROLYN B. MALONEY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 20, 2003

Mrs. MALONEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Loula Loi-Alafoyiannis, the Executive Global President and C.E.O. of the Euro-American Women's Council (EAWC). Loula has spent her professional life facilitating the needs of Greek and American entrepreneurial communities and advancing the cause of women's rights in the areas of business and education.

Loula has demonstrated that intelligence, integrity, energy, clear objectives and the love of a task well executed create credibility. Her love for Greece and her desire to promote greater understanding between Greece and America has made her a strong advocate and a wonderful ally.

Loula, like so many talented women of her generation, has had several careers. For two decades, Loula served as an elementary school teacher, helping to ensure that young people have a strong educational foundation. Her work with young people inspired her to create a Youth Leadership Award given annually by EAWC.

She then turned to the challenges offered by business, public relations and event-planning. Loula's entrepreneurial skills are widely recognized and, as a result, she has served as a delegate to White House Conferences on small businesses since 1990, and has advised numerous public officials and government leaders. Loula has also sponsored numerous White House luncheons for prominent and influential business women from across the United States and Greece.

In 1991, she founded and organized the "Best Buddies Foundation" in Greece, along with Anthony Kennedy Shriver, who serves as its Global President and C.E.O. As the Founder and the executive Global President of Euro-American Women's Council, Loula has established a spirit of cooperation among business women globally. The women of EAWC bridge nations and cultures, set trends, exercise influence, innovate positive change and make a difference around the world. Since 2001, Loula has been the Coalition Partner for Europe of the Women Impacting Public Policy (WIPP) organization. She is currently a board member to the Human Rights Advisory Council of New York.

Loula has received a number of prestigious awards for her outstanding contributions, including the Crown Award, which recognizes her as one of the most creative minds of the top leading entrepreneurial women of the world. She has also earned the distinguished award of "Honorary Citizen of Baku" as a result of her pioneering efforts to improve entrepreneurial training in the former Soviet Union.

Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to bring to the attention of my colleagues the outstanding work of Loula Loi-Alafoyiannis. Her unwavering dedication to improving relations between the Greek and American entrepreneurial communities and promoting opportunities for women is truly worthy of our recognition.

Mr. TOWNS. Mr. Speaker, I rise in honor of the Reverend Dr. John L. Giles in recognition of his pastoral anniversary.

While Reverend Giles was born in the tiny town of Sanger, TX, located 38 miles southwest of Fort Worth, he considers himself a native of San Francisco. It was during high school that he joined St. Kevin's Catholic Church and learned the Catholic discipline. He was also a member of Bethel A.M.E. Church. Upon graduating from Balboa High School, he had saved enough money to attend college and support himself. Through his hardships, he learned independence, responsibility, the importance of healthy living, and helping others and his family.
